ORDER ON THE FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION'S EXPEDITED MOTION FOR STAY PENDING APPEAL

On August 18, 2009, a hearing was held on the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation's (the "FDIC-R") Expedited Motion for Stay Pending Appeal (the "Motion") (Doc 70). The Motion seeks a stay pending appeal of the "Order with Regard to the FDIC-R Objection to Rule 2004 Production of Work Product Documents" of the Bankruptcy Court entered August 13, 2009 (Doc. 66) compelling the production of documents as stated therein (the "Work Product Order").

Having considered the record in this case and the arguments advanced by counsel at the hearing, and for the reasons stated by the Court on the record at the August 18, 2009 hearing,

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED as follows:

- (a) The FDIC-R is granted a temporary stay of the Work Product Order pending appeal to allow the FDIC-R to file a Motion for Stay Pending Appeal of the Work Product Order in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Georgia (the “District Court”); provided, however that such temporary stay shall remain in effect until the earlier of (i) the District Court’s grant or denial of a stay pending appeal; or (ii) 30 days after entry of this Order; and
- (b) Such temporary stay pending appeal is further conditioned upon the FDIC-R serving upon the Trustee’s counsel, on or before August 28, 2009, a privilege log identifying by date, author and subject matter each document that the FDIC-R contends is protected from disclosure pursuant to the work product doctrine, and stating the specific grounds and/or basis for the assertion of work product protection with respect to each such document.
